Dianne Lubeski

BERMUDA RUN, N.C. – Dianne Lubeski was a caring wife, mother, grandmother, sister and friend. She left this world suddenly on Feb, 23, 2021, at age 78.

She was born to Aloysius and Bernadine Kuhl on Nov. 8, 1942, in Denver, Colo. After graduating from high school, Dianne worked for Uniroyal, where she met her husband of 38 years, Edward Lubeski. Together, they had two children, Christine and Mark.

When her children were grown, Dianne returned to Central Connecticut State University to receive a Bachelor's Degree in accounting. She spent many years working for Duracell Inc., and finished her career as an auditor for the state of Connecticut.

Dianne loved spending time with her family, playing bridge and golf. In addition, Dianne enjoyed traveling with her husband and sister around the globe.

In later years, she traveled with her children and grandchildren making beautiful memories along the way.

Dianne was preceded in death by her husband. She leaves behind her son, Mark Lubeski; daughter and son-in-law, Christine and Stephen Cooper; her sister, Marsha Hranchak; as well as her three grandchildren, Sarah, Thomas and Jessica Cooper; and many wonderful friends.

A private funeral service is scheduled.
