

Donald Curtis Webster Jr. (1946 - 2018)

Obituary

Donald Curtis Webster Jr., born Sept. 24, 1946, passed away on Tuesday, July 3, 2018. A double Mayflower descendent and a son of Maine, Donald was raised a citizen of the world as an army brat with his twin sister, Ann Rea. He served his country during the Vietnam War. He was a gifted athlete, avid reader and bridge master. He worked in trucking and manufactured MAN buses. He created Fleet Operations, a chemical tank cleaning business with his partner who allowed him to retire early. He and Betsy, his wife of 43 years, raised flowers and llamas on their farm in Mount Ulla.

They enjoyed an adventurous life of travel. Their favorite country was New Zealand where friends welcomed them for many years and where they built a home. Don was a devoted friend. He generously supported humanitarian programs for veterans, the poor, animal welfare, education and the ACLU. Summersett Funeral Home is serving the Webster family. Online condolences may be made at www.summersettfuneralhome.com.
